SCHOLAR BOWL TEAM HONORED

Shelton State's Scholar Bowl team has been chosen one of eight teams to compete for the state championship on March 28 and 29 at Athens State College in Athens, Alabama. Members of the team are Robert Hudson, captain; Jeffrey Edwards; Tina Capley; Donna Rogers; Terry Malone; Lisa Webster.

On March 6, the Scholar Bowl team finished second in their division by compiling a five wins and two loss record. By finishing second, the team was selected to participate in the state tournament.

READERS' THEATRE

All interested student and faculty are invited to attend the first meeting of the Readers' Theatre on Wednesday, March 28, at 9 a.m. in room 87. The Readers' Theatre is for students, faculty, and anyone interested in planning and performing literature for audiences.

SUDDUTH TO EXHIBIT AT FOLK FESTIVAL

Internationally known primitive painter, Jimmy Lee Sudduth from Fayette, will exhibit his works as part of Shelton State's Folk Festival. The Festival will begin at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, April 3, as part of Heritage Week in Tuscaloosa.

Sudduth's works have been shown in London England as well as the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. He has appeared on the "Today" show and has been part of a special for the Public Broadcasting Service.

Some of Sudduth's favorite subjects and landscapes from his native Fayette will be on Display. His log cabins usually have iron-rich red mud for logs with gray Tennessee clay or white clay for highlights. Sudduth also paints frame houses, churches, covered bridges, gristmills, and field hands with cotton-filled sacks thrown over their shoulders.

THE BIG CONTEST

In honor of National Library Week: The Shelton State Junior College Administrators (Bizzoco, Howington, Lee, Sumner) vs. Shelton State Scholar Bowl Team in a duel of wits on Tuesday, April 10, 1984 from 10 - 10:30 a.m. in the library. Come and cheer for your favorite team!

HANSEL AND GRETEL

The Punch and Judy Players under the direction of Susan Carol Brown will present "Hansel and Gretel" March 30 - April 1 at the Bama Theatre. Performances are 4 p.m. on March 30, 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on March 31, and 2 p.m. on April 1. Burt Hughes will be Hansel and KaLea Wilson will be Gretel. Mariana Newby will be the Witch. Set designer is Paul Looney.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

There will be a Motor Fleet Supervisor Workshop at the Alabama State Fire College March 27-29. The workshop is sponsored by Shelton State in cooperation with the Institute of Public Safety at Pennsylvania State University, the National Committee for Motor Fleet Supervisor Training, and the Alabama Trucking Association. This course emphasizes areas in which management can improve and control employee performance. It is designed for the person just beginning fleet safety work or for the person seeking an update, regardless of line or staff responsibility. It is equally applicable to all types and sizes of motor fleets.

COSUME CONTEST SCHEDULED

Remember the faculty and student contest scheduled for the Folk Festival on April 3. The best costume in both divisions will win $15, compliments of Jon Lee and Sports Karate. They will also receive a free ticket for a tour during Heritage Week. The best costume for a faculty member will also receive a free antique basket reproduction, compliments of Linda Maier. The judging will begin at 12 noon in the auditorium.

FACULTY LUNCHEON

There will be a luncheon for faculty and administration, exhibitors, and special guests at noon on April 3 during the Folk Festival. Jon Lee and Sports Karate will furnish the barbeque. All faculty, staff, and administration who come to the luncheon are asked to bring a dish to go with the barbeque. Please contact Gail Kicher, Janet Gregory, Sharon Deck as soon as possible to let them know if you are coming.

TWO CLOWNS ARE NEEDED.....There are two clown suits ready to be used for the Folk Festival on Tuesday, April 3. All that is needed will be two people to wear them. If you are interested in being a clown for several hours during the Folk Festival (it's a lot of fun and you get your lunch too), then contact Lucy Kubiszyn or Dean Lee immediately.

LUNCH IN CAPITOL PARK

Don't forget the Shelton Singers will be performing during "Lunch in Capitol Park" this Friday at 11:30 a.m. in downtown Tuscaloosa. There will be a parade beginning at 10:30 a.m. in front of City Hall. Leading the parade along with local dignitaries will be the Alabama State Fire College fire truck. Plan to come down for lunch, enjoy the entertainment and the beautiful weather. Bring your own lunch or purchase a pizza from Bama Bino.

HINDERAS AND RUBIN TO PERFORM AT SHELTON STATE

Pianist Natalie Hinderas and violinist Henry Rubin will present a program of chamber music at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, March 27, at 11 a.m. in the Junior College auditorium.

Mrs. Hinderas, a faculty member of Temple University, Philadelphia, PA, is currently serving as Distinguished Visiting Professor at the University of Alabama. She has recorded three albums, "Natalie Hinderas Plays Music by Black Composers," "Natalie Hinderas Plays Sensuous Piano Music," and "Natalie Hinderas Plays a Concerto by George Walker," and has performed numerous symphonies.

Rubin is a member of the faculty of the University of Alabama and is a member of the New Cadek Trio. He has been selected to participate as a solo performer in the Performing Arts Program of the Atlanta - based Southern Arts Federation. This summer he will be performing in South America.

ADN CHALLENGE EXAM TO BE GIVEN

The Challenge Exam, which is required of any student entering Shelton's Associate Degree in Nursing program, will be given on May 5, 1984 from 8:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at the Junior College Division. Anyone interested in taking the exam should contact Dean Howington's office by April 1, 1984. All ADN folders should be completed prior to May 5, 1984. All pre-requisite courses must be completed by June, 1984 to be considered for September admission.

MORAE EXHIBIT IN LIBRARY

Trudy Jones Morae is currently exhibiting her acrylic paintings in the library of the Junior College Division through April 12, 1984. The paintings are on exhibit Monday-Thursday, 8 a.m.-9 p.m. and Friday, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Morae received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Georgetown College and her Master of Fine arts degree from the University of Alabama. Currently she is affiliated with the Capital Gallery of Contemporary Art in Frankfort, Kentucky. She has exhibited in one-woman shows in Kentucky and Missouri and has participated in juried exhibits in the Georgetown College Invitational Exhibit, American Painters in Paris, and the Birmingham Museum Juried Show.

ADN GRADUATES PASS EXAM

The first graduates of Shelton State's Associate Degree in Nursing program have taken the State Registered Nursing Exam and all of the graduates received passing grades. "We are extremely proud of this program" said Dr. Leo Sumner, president of the college. "Not only does this speak highly of our LPN program but it shows these students have had good on-the-job training. This only reinforces what I have already known about the quality of instruction these student have received." The coordinator and instructors of this program are extremely qualified," Dr. Sumner said.

CORSAIRS FORMED

The Corsairs, Shelton's new fencing team, is ready to serve as a demonstration team trained to perform at malls, high schools as well as fencing events. Club sponsor, Dr. Bruce Bizzoco, plans to field a team in the fall to fence some of the major universities.

MUSIC MANNERS

- By Syble Coats, chairman of the music department.
- 1) Do not clap between movements of a long work.
 - 2) Do not eat or drink during a performance.
 - 3) Do not attend if you can't stay for the entire performance.
 - 4) Do not stand outside and make a lot of noise; it disturbs the audience.
